SPECIAL LINES
AIM OF EXPRESS
COMPANIES

PARCEL POST IS LONG ENOUGH
IN OPERATION TO SHOW
NO NEED TO WORRY.

"We are getting ready for an announcement of several new lines of special service, lines that are confidently expected to increase the volume of business and be satisfactory to the public," said General Superintendent C. R. Graham of Wells Fargo & Co. in San Francisco.

That appears to be the keynote of the endeavors of the express companies all over the country—"special service" for everything they handle. The competition of the parcel post has cut into the small package business of the companies, but although not one of the Wells Fargo men in San Francisco will say it, not nearly as much as was once feared.

The truth is that the parcel post has created business of its own, independently of anything that the express companies have been doing.

The berry and early vegetable and milk and butter and fresh fish and other lines recently developed by the Wells Fargo people have proved so successful that these and similar items have pretty well made up for the loss that has come in some departments of the small parcel business.

The companies here and in the east have not given out their financial statements showing how their business has compared in the first part of this year with the first part of 1912. It has not been the custom of the companies to do this and they are not departing from custom. But down at the bottom it is understood that they have done remarkably well both as to Wells Fargo and as to the eastern companies.

How well this special service plan is working is shown in the case of shipments of mercantile houses. For instance, take the case of the wholesale milliners. The millinery business is done almost entirely by express. The express company picks up the shipments and delivers them.
While the packages are on the road they are handled with reference to escape from damage. The parcel post handles such packages in the general mass of mail matter and there is extreme liability to damage. The same care is ordered with every shipment by express.

"I haven't seen any figures presenting the operation of the express companies as a whole since the evidence was presented to the Interstate commerce commission some time ago, but you can rest assured that the express companies are not perceptibly worried. There has been sufficient time since the parcel post started to remove several propositions from the realm of conjecture into the knowledge of fact."

SWITCHMAN LOSES LEGS
AND DIES SOON AFTER

Falling from the top of a freight car to the tracks in front of the wheels, Guy B. Nunemaker was fatally injured at Imlay. He lived but 40 minutes after being picked up at 4:10 o'clock.

A special train was hurriedly put together to take the injured man to the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco, but the victim of the accident succumbed at Orona and the body was taken to Reno.

Nunemaker had been station agent at Imlay, but became an outside man at his own request, and had served in that capacity but five or six months. He was 28 years old, a member of the Moose and Masonic lodges of Winnemucca and leaves a widow and a seven year old son. Mrs.
Nunemaker, Mrs. Saxton and a fellow trainman of the victim of the accident were on the special.

Both of Nunemaker's legs were severed at the hip under the wheels of the car. He was conscious for 35 minutes following the accident.

A store that advertises must be a store of values—"gargains" or the advertising would not pay.

Is A "Regular Customer" Worth to Your Store?

Suppose you could BUY 100 additional REGULAR CUSTOMERS during the next week or two—customers who, for years and years to come, would make a MAJORITY of their purchases of goods in your line at YOUR STORE?

What would each of these 100 customers be WORTH to you?

It is, we think, quite likely that if such an investment were possible, you'd eagerly pay TWICE AS MUCH as it would cost you to secure these 100 REGULAR CUS-TOMERS through an advertising campaign big enough and aggressive enough to really make people ACQUAINTED with your store!
